

THE CENTRAL RECORD

SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14 1906.

NUMBER 37

OUR MOTTO: Fair
Dealing and Courteous Treatment.

Grand Christmas Display

The Best is the Cheap
est. Yours in Good Faith.

Handsome and Appropriate Presents

Our splendid assortment of Goods for the Holiday Trade is now complete. We are showing the very swellest line of Gifts suitable for Christmas ever placed before the Trade in this section of the State. We invite comparison both in price and quality with the largest city dealers. We mention herein only a few articles of our varied assortment.

Deposit Ware in Vases, Pitchers, Cologne Bottles, Etc. Fine Line of Fancy Pictures, 25c to $30.00.

Hawk's and Libby's Fine Cut Glass

The Most Magnificent Display of Cut Glass Ever Shown in Central Kentucky.

JEWELRY.

Bracelets; $1 to $50, Necklaces, $1 to $75, Locketts, $1 up, Cuff Buttons, Set and Plain Rings, Diamond Rings, Back and Side Combs, Gold and Filled Lognett Chains, Scarf Pins, Belt Buckles.

Bronze, Brass and Copper Novelties.

Fine Line of Hand-Painted China. Plates at all prices. Tea Cups, Saucers, Chocolate and After Dinner Cups, Vases, Etc. No old Goods, strictly new Patterns. Gents and Ladies Card Cases and Gents Bill Books, Etc.

Come In and Make Your Selections Before They are all Picked Over.

'See,' 'Hear,' 'Buy'
and Live to Rejoice in Your Own
Good Judgement.

Hugh Murray,

The Jeweler.

Danville, Ky.

Don't take Anybody's Word. Our Goods Stand The Most Critical Test.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Apron Bazaar And exchange.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have an apron bazaar and exchange in the Post Office, Saturday, December 15th. Aprons representing all the States, also every size and color will be on hand for sale at very low prices. They will also have everything for the table, fresh and well prepared. Your patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Remember the apron sale and bazaar given by ladies of the Methodist church Saturday afternoon. It will be held in Thompson's store.

The W H M S. of the Methodist church will hold a payer service Sunday afternoon at 2:30, in the church. Every member is urged to be present, and all are requested to invite their friends to come with them.

Mrs J H Williams, Prest.

To Correspondents: Please send in your favors a little earlier next week, and greatly oblige.

Successful Enterprise.

The Lancaster greenhouses, recently erected by Mr. Christman, are proving a great success, and of greater convenience to the Lancaster people. He grows many pretty flowers, and the handsome designs recently furnished prove that he understands his business. He can prepare the prettiest and best designs on the shortest notice, and rates are very reasonable. Drive out on Richmond street and see the beautiful flowers.

Moves To Danville.

Now another of Garrard county's most prominent and popular Citizens announces his determination to move to Danville, this time Capt. Ike M. Dunn being the man. Capt. Dunn, who is one of the best known men in Central Kentucky, has decided to enter the real estate business, and will move to Danville first of the year and form a partnership with J. Beecher Adams, who has been in the business for some time. Garrard county people regret very much to lose Capt. Dunn, as he has been a useful citizen in a great many ways. Everybody is fond of Ike, and all hope that he will soon return and make this his home again.

No Verdict.

The case of the Commonwealth against Sam Jennings for killing Mace Miller was called in the circuit court last week, and it required several days to get a jury. The taking of testimony consumed two days and the speeches one day and part of Tuesday night. Jennings claimed that he was talking to Miller when the latter noticed that his (Jennings') pistol was about to fall from his pocket. In replacing the pistol, and while holding it in his hand, the weapon was discharged. The speeches of the attorneys were listened to by a large crowd of people, and great interest was manifested during the entire trial. Jennings was represented by Judge M. C. Sautley, R. H. Tomlinson and J. Mort Rothwell. Commonwealth's Attorney Hardin and County Attorney Joe E. Robinson were assisted by Lewis L. Walker. The jury was out about six hours but could not decide upon the punishment.

Lost.

Monday, on streets, music roll containing lot of music. Name, "Katie Conn" on roll. Return to Record office and receive reward.

Two Phones.

Business has increased so much at H. M. Ballou's place of business that the Bastin Telephone Co. find it necessary to put in an extra Phone No. 123, that he might care for and protect his customers with out delay.

Apology to Readers.

We have to ask the indulgence of our readers for lack of reading matter in this issue of The Record, our friends, the advertisers, having swamped us. As this happens only once a year, and the further fact that we have sent many columns of live matter during the year, we believe you will pardon us. Next week we will send out a handsome colored cover, the paper being eight pages in size. We don't mean to boast, but must say we are very proud of the handsome design of paper we have selected for a Christmas number.

Given Life Sentence.

The case against William Humber for killing Policeman Geo. Pollard, was completed Thursday, and after short deliberation, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life. More than half the jury was for the death sentence, some being for as low as twenty-one years. They finally agreed, however, on the life sentence. The case will be appealed to the court of appeals. The speeches of the lawyers were exceptionally fine, there being six of them and each was listened to by a large crowd of people.

A Big Sale On.

As will be seen by the immense ad on next page, The Blue Front store will have a big sale of goods at remarkably low prices. Mr. Patterson, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Blue Front, came to Lancaster some time ago, and by fair dealings, honest methods and reliable stock has built up a splendid business. He became overstocked by reason of the backward season, and is forced to sell his goods at cost and below cost to meet his obligations in the city. This sale will soon dispose of the goods, as the prices will bring customers from many distant points. Mr. Patterson will continue in business at the same stand, as he has decided to make Lancaster his home and live among us. Read the great reduction prices and go to the sale before the best bargains are gone.

Normal School Examination.

The competitors examination for appointment to State Normal, at Richmond, Ky., will be held at my office on Saturday, December 15, 1906, between the hours of 8:30 A. M. and 3:30 P. M. The examination will be held upon Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, U. S. History, and Spelling upon questions prepared by the Normal Executive Council.

The applicant must make a general average of seventy five per cent, with no grade, on any branch under seventy per cent.

Mittie A. Dunn Supt.

The Lancaster Greenhouse will have a quantity of Holly for Xmas. Ring up and leave your order.

Wanted - Clerks.

The Blue Front wants twenty five clerks at once to assist in the great sale. Good, reliable people will do well to apply at once.

Baughman.

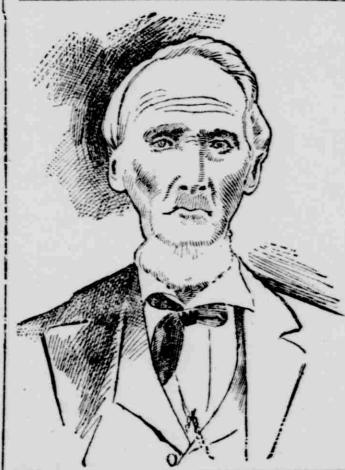

After a lingering illness, Mrs. John T. Baughman died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Morrow, on Richmond street, Thursday night. She came to Lancaster from her home in Lexington hoping the change would prove of some benefit, and while she improved slightly, yet there was little hope of complete recovery. Mrs. Baughman was beloved by a wide circle of friends who deeply deplore her death. She was a daughter of Mrs. Clayton Anderson, and came from one of the oldest and best-known families in Garrard county. She leaves her husband and two children, who have sympathy in their great bereavement. Rev. C. C. Brown conducted services at the grave the burial taking place at the family burying ground near the residence of Mr. H. C. Sutton.

CAPT WHITE DEAD.

After an illness running back for several months, Capt. Franklin J. White peacefully breathed his last, at his home on Richmond street, Monday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock. He had been declining rapidly since the death of his wife, which occurred last summer. He was in his eighty seventh year, and the strength which remained even after critically ill was something remarkable. Capt. White was born in Madison county, and at the age of seven years entered the printing office of his father and began to learn the art of printing. All his remaining years were spent in a printing office except his service in the Mexican war and a few years he spent on a farm. He moved to Lancaster when quite young, but spent some years in Somerset, where he was post master, keeping the mails in his printing office. He returned to Lancaster, and for several years went to Stanford every Monday morning and spent the week setting type for Col. W. P. Walton on the Interior Journal. In all the years he spent at the trade, he only worked in four towns, Lancaster, Richmond, Somerset and Stanford. He did not enlist during the Civil war, though his sympathies were with the South. He was a member of the Baptist church and as long as able attended services regularly.

He raised a family of five children all of whom are dead except Mrs. J. S. Armstrong, of Dallas, Texas. Capt.

White was a man of fine sense, and we never knew one who came nearer attending to his own business. He was one of the most loyal citizens the town ever had. We have often heard him say, "Well, I have made as much money as any man in town, and every cent of it has been spent with Lancaster merchants. I have no use for people who send their money away where it will never be heard of again." He was extremely kind hearted, and during the years he was connected

Christmas PRESENTS.

We have them for the whole family including the sweethearts.

Every kind from a

Silver Butter Knife

to a

Florence Smoke Consuming Heater

for mother.

From a

Silver Chafing Dish

to a

Brass Fire Set

for sister.

From a Shot Gun

to a

Velocipede

for brother.

We wont try to name them all

they are in our store come and see them.

HASELDEN BRO'S